The Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation (“MCIDC”) recently approved an emergency small business support program for businesses with 50 or fewer full-time employees or full-time equivalent employees. It offers zero interest loans of up to $10,000 to support operations and employment. MCIDC will review the requests as the applications are received and provide decisions within seven (7) business days of submission. There is no cost to apply. Interested businesses should complete the application and return according to the instructions found here.
